THOMAS MUSICAL COMEDY COM-PANY.

All Next Week at The Davis Theatre pular demand the Thomas Mu-By popular demand the Thomas Ma-slical Comedy company, will appear at the Davis theatre, with a new and up to date roaring musical farce entitled Who's Who. As the title suggests, who's Who. As the title suggests, there will be plenty of lively action, and with the new song numbers that the company will introduce, are sure to be merry ones for the local theattre goers will be well entertained by Tom Thomas and his ideal organization, consisting of musical comedy artists, vaudeville entertainers, cabaret stars and general all around commedians and singers.

medians and singers. Mr. Tom Thomas is a born fun maker, and with his style of presenting his experiences no difficulty in keeping an audience laughing during his stay behind the footlights, Mr. Thomas is a showman, thus he does not have the contract of the c not attempt to occupy the entire at-tention of the audience, and he is broad enough minded to allow other broad enough minded to allow other members of the company an opportunity to bring their talent to the front. The announcement that this company is to be with us is indeed pleasing news and you will find in this organization, the best possible entertainment, presented in a condenced form, of sufficient quantity likewise quality to supply the needs of the average theatre patron.

told something of its mechanical cleverness and its structural unusualness. The main story deals with a murder trial wherein the jury is put in possession of the facts leading up to the crime. The circumstantial evidence is marshalled before the jury and at the same time before the audience. Witnesses are called into the box and in the midst of their evidence one by Mitnesses are called into the box and in the midst of their evidence one by one the scenes are changed, and the story they are telling to the jurors is enacted before the audience. The dead man's widow, who was present when the crime was committed, starts to tell her story; suddenly the theatre is plunged into darkness, and in the twinkling of an eye, the lights go up and the story of the murder and the actual crime, is enacted on the transformed stage. This occurs not once but a number of times until the witsesses have become exhausted. the witsesses have become exhausted.

It has been suggested that no dramatist would have dared to play tricks with an audience as is done in "On Trial" and that the motion picture play which shifts its scenes here and there and everywhere, gave Mr. Helzenstein his idea. Be that the fact remains that the conditions of Baptism and The Lord's ordinance of Baptism and The Lord's as it may, the fact remains that 'On ordinance of Baptism and The Lord's supper will be observed at the morning sensation the American stage has seen ing service. COLONIAL THEATRE.

Mabel Trunelle Appearing in "Young Mrs. Winthrop."

This superb two reel feature film is an adaptation of the noted play by Bronson Howard, by the same name-telling of a man who being engrossed telling of a man who being engrossed in his business, neglects his wife, who turns to society to assuage his feelings. A general misunderstanding takes place in which the little child of the family seems to suffer most. At length they are brought to see the error of their ways through the loss of the child, and their remorse is a fitting climax to this strong drama. Mabel Trunelle is surrounded by an exceptional cast including Robert Conness. Gladys Hulette, Harry Beau-Gladys Hulette, Harry | Sally Cruze and others. Target." "Life's Stream," Harry Beau "Broncho Billy's Decision," are the re-maining films for today.

Coming Monday is Wilton Lackaye in "Children of the Ghetto," the sea-son's biggest creation in the motion picture world.

By popular request the management of this theatre has booked "The Hinky-Dee Girls" for a return engagement here of another full week starting next Monday at the matinee performance. This is the musical comedy company which was presented here dy company which was presented here four weeks ago under the manage-ment of the A. B. Marcus Musical Atment of the A. B. Marcus Musical Attractions Co., Inc., and will be remembered readily by the excellent chorus which was with the show. Everyone admits that this company has the finest looking lot of girls of any the girls of any the finest looking lot of girls of any the finest looking loo tabloid show in New England. Even in the last few weeks the show has become bigger and better than ever, as ever since it was here Mr. Maras ever since it was here Mr. Mar-cus, who is a very progressive man, has added to the show very material-ly and besides Happy McNally and Tom Carroll, those two sure fire com-edians, he has added another very has added to the show very materially and besides Happy McNally and Tom Carroll, those two sure fire comedians, he has added another very clever man in comedy parts in the person of Bert Howe who joined the person of Bert Howe wonderfully clever toe dancer and singer, and these two extra people and neveral changes of fine new wardrobe added to an already strong show will make without a doubt the strongest musical comedy show seen here this season. The Hinky-Dee Girls will present three different bills on the week with an entire change on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and they will not repeat a single show that they played here on their previous engagement. There will be the usual three shows daily and no raise in the price of admission.

EASTER DAY.

The white-robed lily-censers filing
Their fragrance to the day,
As if they, too, would gladly bring
That morn for which we pray,
When we shall find the Christ with
And keep our Easter day.

GOD IN ME.

The knowledge of God keeps me.
The law of God holds me.
The strength of God soothes me,
The supremacy of God molds me.

The salvation of God is gladness to me. The kingdom of God is the home of me, The rest of God is refreshing to me, The blessing of God is the bone

AND SIMON PETER STOOD AND

His Lord stood bound and buffeted. The cup the Father gave
To him to drink—the drinking of which a world would save—
Already in his hand—yea, to his lips was pressed
To drain, and in the draining set a world at rest.

"And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself."

How many Simon Peters are there still —with fear kept dumb—with shame!
At approbation's coals they "stand and warm themselves." The name
The power of which they know to cleanse to heal, to bless,
Lies silent on the lips—afraid him to confess!
"And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself."
